

MAKING VTT AFFORDABLE

At VTT, we are doing all we can to make Jewish education financially accessible for our families. We understand the high cost of living in Vancouver and the financial commitment that Jewish education requires. VTT relies on donations and community funds to support our TAC program. As financial sustainability is one of our core pillars, we rely on our families to make reasonable lifestyle sacrifices to ensure we can support as many families as possible while being accountable to our funders. VTT is pleased to offer two financial assistance programs.
